

RESTAURANT GUIDE...A list of restaurants with phone numbers and some helpful information is attached below. It is always a good idea to call to make sure the restaurant is still open, check hours of operation, directions, etc.

Rincon

There are many different types of restaurants in Rincon and the surrounding areas. The following is a list that we and other guests have recommended. Don't hesitate to try new ones. If you like them, or even if you do not, let us know in the Guest Comment Book so future guests will know the best places to go.

Mayaguez

There are too many to list, but this is where you will find a lot of good restaurants, and all the "American" restaurants including McDonalds, Pizza Hut, Burger King, Subway, Ponderosa, KFC, Denny's etc.

Puerto Rican Roadside Favorites

You might also want to try the road side stands for typical Puerto Rican cuisine such as pinchos, Shish kabobs - usually they are pork but sometimes you can get fish, beef, chicken or rabbit. You might also want to try papa's rellenos, potato balls with beef or pork inside; empanadillas / little pies with stuffing's of beef, pork lobster, shrimp or chicken; you will also find basted chicken which by some has been called the best in the world. Another item you might want to try is a piragua, which is Puerto Rico's version of an I see shaved ice with delicious tropical flavorings. You will find this concoction on the street of any town or city. You just look for a little cart with a large block of ice and a lot of bright colored bottles. One might also try to spot the ice cream man and sample the coconut or pineapple ice cream. In Rincon, these carts can usually be found around La Estacion, the bakery on Road 115 which heads into town. Last known price was 50 cents for a small cup and a dollar for a large.

ALWAYS CHECK THE OPERATING HOURS FOR THE RESTAURANTS.
